

Profile-Karishma Grover

A graduate in Viticulture & Enology (V&E) with a Minor in Managerial Economics, Karishma Grover has just completed the prestigious wine making degree from the acclaimed University of California, Davis. Her coursework included aspects from the agriculture or vineyard portion right through the winery operations and sensory evaluation. She spent the last year based in Bangalore, close to the winery and is intricately involved in the wine production and winery operations.

Upon completion of her degree, Karishma interned with Cakebread Cellars in Napa Valley, CA.

Karishma has worked closely with renowned consulting enologist- Mr. Michel Rolland. In fact, she has actively participated in all the tastings and experiments that were conducted during his visits to India. She is planning to further her education, by visiting and working with Mr. Rolland, in Bordeaux during the 2009 Vintage.

Besides academics and trainings, Karishma is also associated with Happy Home and School for the Blind, Mumbai, where she has volunteered as a teacher.

She loves to travel, read and catch up on Formula One, Tennis, and Soccer. She has also served as a School's tennis team captain at J.B. Petit High School for Girls, Mumbai, India.
